

BRUNO SOMMER FERREIRA

CEO of Biotrend a bioprocess development company, and founder of systems biology company Silicolife, two research-based startups. He was visiting scientist at the Institute of Biomaterial & Biomedical Engineering, University of Toronto, Canada, and researcher at Centre for Biological and Chemical Engineering, Technical University of Lisbon, Portugal. Has a PhD in Biotechnology, Technical University of Lisbon, and research experience spanning industrial biotechnology, bioprocess development, optimization and scale-up and bioprocess design. He published more than 30 peer-reviewed papers, books and book chapters. Also he has been Vice-President of the Portuguese Bioindustries Association. PI in international collaborative research projects. Contributed to advisory groups for the Portuguese Government, the European Commission, the OECD on the topic of the bioeconomy.

